

Stock Donations

Transferring stock to Faith's account requires that you contact your broker to initiate the transfer. Most firms will have a form for you to complete, and if you have specific questions, you will need to ask your broker. You will need your personal information, such as name, address, account number, etc. You will need to identify the stock and number of shares to be transferred to the Church.

After you have given your broker your information, please let us know that you are transferring stock. Due to privacy issues, our broker cannot provide us information on who donated the stock. To let us know, you can go to our website, www.faithpresusa.com click on the donations button. Below the buttons for making a contribution you will see a line that states "If you have initiated a stock transfer and want to let us know click here." If you click on "click here" you can fill in the form to tell us about the transfer. That way we can look for it. Alternatively, you can inform the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer about the transfer. If you do not tell us about the transfer, we may have a five business day delay in converting the stock to cash and we will not know that you gave it to us.
